IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE
CIVIL REVISION APPLICATION NO.7 OF 2005

Shri Gajanan R. Chaudhary Petitioner

Vs.

Mr.Homa Petil & ors. Respondents

Mr.Raju Moray with Mr.V.S.Talkute for petitioner.

Mr.Shailendra Bhandari i/b.Jehangir Gulabbhai & Bilimoria & Daruwalla for respondents.

CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE,J.
July 12, 2005.

P.C.

1. The learned counsel have placed on record the Consent Terms duly signed by both the parties, their respective Advocates and in the presence of the witnesses. The Consent Terms are taken on record and marked "X" for identification.

2. It is clear that the disputes between the parties have been settled in terms of the Consent Terms and they have agreed to unconditionally withdraw the allegations made against each other in previous correspondence and litigation and record that they do not have any claim pending against each other. It is further agreed that the Consent Terms placed on record set at rest the disputes in their entirety.

3. The CRA is disposed off in terms of the Consent Terms and the parties shall act according to the said Consent Terms.

(B.H.MARLAPALLE,J.)